Over 350 guests enjoyed a pre-New Year's party at the Young Friends Beach Bash at Mar-a-Lago. The party celebrated the fabulous Palm Beach lifestyle in an amazing beachfront location.

"It was an honor to be part of the Young Friends Beach Bash," said Ivanka Trump, event chairwoman. "I enjoyed working together with event co-chairwoman Elizabeth Meigher and the rest of the committee to plan this event for the wonderful cause of the American Red Cross Greater Palm Beach Area Chapter."

Young Friends was started by the late Helen Rich, Palm Beach resident and public relations master; Sally Fenton-Young, wealthy socialite; and H. Loy Anderson, noted banker and Palm Beach resident. Young Friends was first created to provide a very special event for young supporters - those in their 20's, 30's and 40's, living or visiting the island over the holiday season. The first party was held on Worth Avenue at H. Loy Anderson's family property over their bank and was underwritten by Young, thus leading to the name of the organization. The event - known simply as the Young Friends of the red Cross - raised well over $1.5 million for the chapter. For more information please visit: www.redcross-pbc.org

The Palm Beach winter social season kicked off to a glamorous and sexy start with the March of Dimes "Glitz" fundraiser at the Breakers Hotel. The theme of the party was "007 Bond style" and the party certainly lived up to the chic and sophisticated image: The evening started with the well connected and beautiful crowd mingling for cocktails and to peruse the enormous silent auction selection. Also on display were a Ferrari and an Aston Martin courtesy of Star Supercar Life. A gorgeous model showed off an equally stunning diamond studded Bulgari necklace which later sold for over $20,000 at the live auction. Spotted in the crowd was Florida Governor Crist, Victor Spillatra and his lovely fiancée, and Carlos and Renee Morrison. This is the third and final year that Lori Stoll and Annie Falk have chaired the Glitz party and they certainly left a legacy!
