

Gloria Starr-Kins

kingroup@aol.com

Kudos For Leadership To Our Celebrities In The Field Of The Arts, Business, Diplomacy, Public Affairs, And Social Graces.

UN Secretary General, Kofi Annan, world leader, renaissance man, and the epitome of a great African statesman.

Media Tycoon, Ted Turner, a strong proponent of the UN and its capacity to combat global poverty. A frequent keynote speaker at UN think tank meetings with high ranking diplomats and UN Secretariat's officials.

Former UN-USA Ambassador, Richard Holbrooke, a financially savvy diplomat, and personal friend of the UN SG, who has confidence in the importance of his continuing role at the UN.

UN Finnish Ambassador, Marjatta Rasi, recognized by her peers as one of the most effective Presidents of ECOSAC.

NYC Commissioner to the UN and Consular Corps Marjorie B. Tiven, covering that beat for her brother, Mayor Michael Bloomberg.

Russian Federation UN Ambassador, Andrey I. Denisov, a brilliant debater with great charisma, a key player in shaping diplomatic strategy in the Security Council.

Hon. Paul Wicker, Former Chief of the Federal Reserve comparing notes with Former US Ambassador to France, Hon. Felix Rohatyn, two illustrious financial experts, who can offer practical financial solutions to solve the UN's accountability snafu.

Rabbi Arthur Schneider, President and Founder of the Appeal of Conscience Foundation, discussing strategies with Dr. Danilo Turk, Assistant UNSG for Political Affairs with Ambassador John B. Richardson, Head of the UN Delegation of the European Commission.