

THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT ABE

This is the beginning of Abe Hirschfeld's Peace Treaty Plan. This park is on the border of the Jewish Jerusalem suburbs and on the other side are all the Palestinian Communities. It will be open 24 - hours a day to both Israelis and Palestinians. Mayor Yitzhak Pindus feels that "it will act as a symbol for peace and serve as catalyst to bring people together."

Abe Hirschfeld, 83 years young made his fortune building parking garages. He has tried and failed to win a variety of elective offices, ranging from lieutenant governor of New York to U.S. Senator. Never one to give up, he once again plans to run as a Republican for Democratic Senator Chuck Shumer's seat. Abe feels that all of the problems we are now experiencing are "because of the Democratic Party." Come what may, Abe Hirschfeld will surely set about accomplishing his goal in his own unique way.
