

Jean Shafiroff

Jean is a philanthropist, author, advocate, and style icon. Her four areas of focus are health care, women's rights, underserved populations, and animal welfare. Recently named National Spokesperson for the American Human Society's Feed the Hungry program, she serves on many charity boards. Jean is the author of "Successful Philanthropy: How to Make a Life By What You Give."

