The Friends of Black Tie rallied to do their duty and braved the worst winter weather in New York's history to show their support for the International Society of Caring Communities, The Federal Republic of Germany's "Trade and Cultural" event, and a special thank you to Governor Pataki. Despite the pressure of a nation wide security alert, the Governor managed to find time to congratulate Carmen E. Arroyo, one of New York's greatest treasures. Black Tie would also like to congratulate Mellie R. Santiago and encourage our readers to continue to support their favorite charities and foundations in these difficult times.
