Hailing from Connecticut, educated at Julliard, multi-lingual, internationally acclaimed singer-songwriter, Sylvia Tosun, releases her latest musical project, Anthem: National Anthems of our world, Volume One. The Anthem Project, developed during her time as a USO Ambassador of Goodwill, is a series of albums consisting of all the national anthems from around the world, sung in their native tongues and set to contemporary arrangements. Billboard Magazine called it “a surreal journey across an exotic world-music palette-all her own and simply fascinating.” This ecumenical project promotes global patriotism and cultural awareness, has been featured at numerous black-tie events, such as The Greenwich Film Festival, The New York Aids Film Festival and The Jewish National Fund’s Tree of Life Award Ceremony.
